465 California Street ■ San Francisco, California

Honorary Dinner Co-Chairs:

JACKIE SPEIER Former California Senator ■ JAN YANEHIRO Broadcast Journalist

Mistress of Ceremonies:

JANET REILLY

Honoring the 2008 Award Recipients:

LYNETTE JUNG LEE

Executive Director, East Bay Asian Local Development Corporation
Community Leader Award

Lynette Jung Lee has led a wide range of efforts to promote strong communities in the East Bay and beyond. In one of her many notable successes, Lee formed a collaborative of nonprofit partners to promote homeownership by creating Individual Development Accounts (IDAs). Today the Bay Area IDA collaborative is seen as a national model for other organizations. Over the course of her tenure, Lee's leadership has enabled the community to develop 1,100 units of affordable housing and 230,000 square feet of commercial property.

ROSARIO MARIN

Secretary, State and Consumer Services, State of California
State Leader Award

A longtime champion for the disadvantaged and cabinet-level advocate for civil rights, consumer protection, victim compensation and "green" policymaking, Rosario Marin is recognized for her extraordinary service to Californians. She oversees the state's building standards, professional licensing, procurement, real estate, employee pension funds, tax collection, and hiring programs – and administers two state museums and a state park.

As the 41st Treasurer of the United States, she championed financial literacy, and served on the White House Commission on Educational Excellence for Hispanic Americans. She was awarded the Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy Prize at the United Nations for her tireless work on behalf of persons with developmental disabilities.

Corporate Leader Award

For over 150 years PG&E Corporation has provided energy and customer service to the people of California. PG&E has demonstrated support for the inclusion of women on its board, in its executive suites and has supported Leadership California since 1995. PG&E is an energy-based holding company headquartered in San Francisco, the parent company of Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Who We Are

Leadership California is a network of over 1000 accomplished women dedicated to advancing the leadership role of women in California. This diverse network comes from the unique California Issues & Trends Program (CIT), which graduates 60 women each year with new understanding of complex global, national and state issues. Leadership California partners with corporate, academic, government and community organizations to support our mission and to include their women leaders in our programs, which offer unique learning and networking opportunities to empower and prepare women to take effective action.
